OBJECTIVE

Visually impaired researcher and disability rights advocate from Bangladesh, seeking a one-year master's degree in public policy at a UK university. I aim to strengthen my skills in policy analysis and research methods so that I can help make policymaking in Bangladesh more evidence-based and inclusive of persons with disabilities. After my studies, I plan to work with a policy think tank and provide consultancy to public offices, especially the Ministry of Social Welfare.

LEADERSHIP AND ADVOCACY

Initiator and Chief Coordinator Sep 2024 - Sep 2025
Anti-Discrimination Visually Impaired Students' Movement, Bangladesh
Inspired by the 2024 mass uprising, initiated and led a movement of visually impaired students campaigning for clear public service recruitment rules. When a formal memorandum to the government went unanswered, mobilised nearly 150 visually impaired students for demonstrations and processions and arranged press conferences. After meetings with the Ministry of Public Administration, the ministry issued a circular specifying the job categories reserved for disabled candidates. Also campaigned for revising the 2023 scribe policy for recruitment examinations.

Founder and President May 2025 - Dec 2025

Inclusive Jahangirnagar, Jahangirnagar University

Founded and led a student organisation supporting students with disabilities through four pillars: education, sports, culture and empowerment. Built its team, coordinated its activities and led initiatives for a barrier-free campus. Its main campaign called for a formal scribe policy for university examinations, and its advocacy led the administration to form a committee to examine the issue.
